

2014 Earth Week Events

Monday, April 21— Friday, April 25

Monday, April 21

Ramo Auditorium

Curt Schmutte, PE, MWD consultant

Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta: The Epicenter of California's Water Challenge.

Tuesday, April 22

Noyes 153

12pm—1pm

Bill Patzert, PhD, JPL Climate Scientist

California's Drought: why, when and how long?

Lunch provided

Tuesday, April 22

Moore Walk

1pm-2pm

Tree Planting

Get your hands dirty and help Caltech plant a tree in commemoration of Earth Day on Moore Walk, north of Moore Lab.

Tuesday, April 22

Ramo Auditorium

6pm—"Ask a Scientist"

8pm—"Dr. Keeling's Curve"

Mike Farrell in "Dr. Keeling's Curve"

The issue of global warming comes to life in the riveting one man show "Dr. Keeling's Curve", by George Shea. At 6:00pm, JPL scientists Josh Fisher and David Crisp will host an "Ask a Climate Scientist" event which will be broadcast live on Ustream with a web-chat!

Presented by Theater Arts at Caltech, JPL, and the Center for Teaching, Learning, and Outreach at Caltech

Wednesday, April 23

Annenberg 105

12pm—1pm

Sustainability Programs, Caltech

Sustainability Programs Update: review of 2013 Annual Report, current campus initiatives and programs, and upcoming projects.

Lunch provided

Thursday, April 24

Annenberg 105

12pm—1pm

Julia Cosse, PhD candidate, Aeronautics

Improving the efficiency of wind turbines through bio inspired design.

Lunch provided

Friday, April 25

San Pasqual Walk

11pm—2pm

Club and Interest Group Fair

Connect with on campus groups and local community organizations.